NIGHT EDITION.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS ON PAGE 4.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

actorlo.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

RACING SPORTS

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS ON PAGE 4.

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

I WAS IN JAIL.

AND SO HEMPSTEAD WOMAN ASKS DIVORCE

and Fatality Followed Wedding of the "First Mrs. Lena."

Mrs. Lena Vogelsang. woman of matronly appearance, has commenced suit for absolute divorce from her husband, Frank, a wealthy plumber of Hempstead, L. I. She tells a sad story of misery, resulting from her having shot and killed a woman neighbor in the middle of her honey moon, nearly a generation ago.

The case came up on a motion for in the Supreme Court, Brook-and went to live at Hempstead. A few with her next door neighbor, Mrs. Mary Seims, over the tethering of a cow and while in a passion, Mrs. Vogelsang and while in a passion, Mrs. Vogelsang ahot Mrs. Seims, killing her instantly. She served a term of two years in the Kings County Penitentiary. Her husband was most devoted to her, she says, while she was in prison, and she found, when released, that ne had prospered to the property of for her a handsome house.

that there was another Mrs. Lena Vogel She adds that her husband admitted that while she was in prison he contract a second marriage with a woman, also named Lens.

... nusbant has twenty days in which to file his answer.

ENDICOTT GUESTS IN A FIRE PANIC.

ONE WOMAN WANTED TO

Naphtha Explosion Caused Alarm in a Crowded West Side Hotel.

A fire in a dining-room on the sixth floor of the Hotel Edicott this aftercareless use of naphtha, threw guests into the wildest kind of a panic. It was by the merest chance that disaster was averted.

Miss Leona Reed, living with Miss L.

M. Dunham on the eixth floor, upon hearing the clanging of fire bells, opened the window in her room and rushed out onto the fire-escape. After making her way to the first story she found that her passage was blocked and called to Policemen Gardner and Bloss, of the West One Hundred Street Station, for heip.

Dinner to Prince Henry.

Dinner of the Society of Medical Jurisprudence, Ho-

Dinner to Gen. Funston, Lo-

Shakespeare Club, Carnegie

Free Lecture on "Health."

Judson Memorial Church, 2 Washington Square South. People's Institute lecture.

Rheinnfaelzer Maennerchor ! ball, Lexington Opera-House.

* WEATHER FORECAST.

Posecast for the thirty-six

Walderf-Asteria.

tos Club.

Building.

Cooper Union.

HE MARRIED WHILE ETRURIA NOT YET FRANK CONGER AT THE AZORES.

LINER CAUSES WORRY.

riends of Passengers Anxiously Await News-Owners Say She'll

LONDON, March 8.-The head of he Cunard steamship line at Liverpool telegraphed to the Associated Press this afternoon as follows:

"We know the Etruria is proceeding slowly and there may be some little time yet before we hear from

Other officers of the Cunard line xpress confidence that the disabled Etruria will soon reach the Azores. gers are much worried.

Mark's avenue, a handsome house When the accident occurred on the vening of Feb. 26 the Etruria and Umbria had just signalled "good American Bridge Building Company, Mr. night" by wireless telegraph. The operator on the Etruria tried to catch the Umbria again, but failed and the Etruria was left hopelessly adrift.

Signals were sent up which soon atracted the attention of the freighter William Cliff, which laid by until morn-The propeller had broken the Etruria's rudder when it broke loose jury rudder which was not particularly brought the news of the Etruria's accident, left the two boats on Feb. 28. At that time they were 400 miles from the The tank steamer Ottawa, which

Fifty Miles in Two Days.

No word has been received in this ity regarding the Etruria since Tuesday, when a telegram was received from Robert J. Campbell, a corre-spondent of The Evening World on board the disabled steamer, giving a report of the accident and the means dopted for towing the boat to port. This cablegram was sent by Mr. ampbell to Horta, on the Azores, by the captain of the steamer Ottawa, and was the first information obtained regarding the disabled boat,

The correspondent said that at the time the William Cliff was unable to Etruria, and this can readily be understood when one knows that the Etruria is a boat of 8,000 tons while the William Cliff has a tonnage of but 2,000.

Absence of Steering Genr. As the Etruria has no steering gear is known on the will go in a zigzag course while rived there being towed except when the "speed" is very slow, and rapid progress would therefore be impossible even if the tow-ing boat had sufficient power to make better progress. etter progress. It took the Ottawa four days to reach

DIES SUDDENLY.

NON-ARRIVAL OF DISABLED PROMINENT BROOKLYNITE IS STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY.

> Building Company and Active in Other Lines.

DETROIT, Mich., March 8.-Frank Conger, of Brooklyn, Vice-President of the American Bridge Building Company died suddenly from apoplexy at th

Wayne Hotel to-day. Mr. Conger had been ill for two days but had not considered his condition se lous. He was talking to his brother Benjamin Conger, in his room at the hotel when death came. He was returnng to the East from Saginaw, Mich. where he had been on business.

His body will be taken to Brookly Mr. Conger leaves a widow and daugh which he recently purchased. Besides being vice-president of the Conger was connected in an official ca pacity with many other business enter prises. He was President of the Universal Safety-Tread Company and of the American Visible Typewriter Com-

Union League Club of Brooklyn, the Duquesne Club of Pittsburg, and was a high degree Mason and Odd Fellow.

CARBOLIC ROUTE. Philippine tariff bill.

SALESMAN KILLS HIMSELF IN HIS HOTEL.

He Tired of

They raised a ladder and nurried her to the street.

The fire was caused by the upsetting of naphtha by servants who were cleaning curtains.

Horta after leaving the Etruria. It is not strange that it should take the William Cliff twice as long to tow the big hoat along the course taken by the tank steamer.

VERY LATEST NEWS IN BRIEFEST FORM.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, MARCH 8, 1902.

MINISTER WU DEMANDS PROTECTION OF CHINESE.

DENVER. Col., March 8 .- Gov. Orman to-day received a telegram from Secretary of State Hay which said:

"The Chinese Minister advises me of reported attempts by miners' union at Ouray, Ouray County, Col., to drive Chinese out of town. Miners' union alleged to have declared boycott against Chinese, who are said to be peaceable residents. the facts are as understood and represented by the Chinese Minister the Department would be pleased if you would take such measures as you may find appropriate to prevent violence and to assure the Chinese protection and unrestricted enjoyment of treaty rights and privileges."

The Governor replied: "I shall take up the matter mentioned in your telegram with the county and town authoritie's at Ouray immediately and ascertain what can be done."

SECRETARY SHAW WATCHED UNNOTICED.

Secretary of the Treasury Shaw gave the bankers the slip to-day, and went to the piers to observe the actions of the customs inspectors. He watched the scenes attendant on the traternal circles, being a member of the arrival of the Lucania, and never once revealed his identity to Lawyers' Club of New York. the the inspectors. Later he visited the American line where he and two days was spent in rigging a Engineers' Club of New York and the was recognized. He said: "Such information as I am gathering is for my own use."

PHILIPPINE TARIFF BILL SIGNED.

WASHINGTON, March 8.-The President has signed the SUICIDE A FUGITIVE FROM JUSTICE.

It was reported late this afternoon that the man who committed suicide in the Herald Square Hotel was James Webster, a travelling salesman, wanted in Rochester on fergery charges. He had registered under an assumed name. Local detectives, in response to a request from Rochester, called at the Herald Square. They were five minutes too late. Their man had killed himself.

PRINCE HENRY'S EVENING PLANS.

Prince Henry after returning from the Ogden Mills luncheon 3.36 o'clock spent the rest of the afternoon in his apartments in the Waldorf-Astoria, devoting his attention to official correspondence. He will attend the Grosse Deutsche Gesellschaft dinner this evening at the hotel.

LATE RESULTS AT NEW ORLEANS.

Third Race—Maggie Davis 1. Imp. Albula 2. Granton 3. Fourth Race-Ben Chance 1. Nitrate 2. 3c a lot Lily 3.

ROW AT UMBRIA SAILING.

Row AT

It was authoritatively stated to-day that the Metropolitan Street Railway Company had secured sufficient proxies to overcome the opposition to its merger plan at the special stockholders' meeting called for March 20.

The Wormser faction had practically admitted its inability to collect expects. The Wormser faction had practically admitted its inability to collect enough stock to successfully oppose the plan, but it intimated that some litigat'on The first witness called wan John T.

CARRIES DEAD CHILD THROUGH STREET.

vicinity—Cloudy to-night and Sunday, with occasional rains; fresh northeast to cast winds.

This was a handicap for three-year-olds and upward, and among the starters in the race were Death and Intrusive. The public has been waiting for a race between these two, and while the distween these two, and while the distance, six furlance.

Vicinity—Cloudy to-night
ones were to run.

Ally, Silver Coin and several other good ones were to run.

Second Race—Maiden two-year-olds; four furlongs.

Second Race—Maiden two-year-olds; four furlongs.

Top Boots.

102 Beggar Lady.

Second Race—Maiden two-year-olds; four furlongs.

Tom Maybin.

112 Little Giant.

105 Courage.

Top Boots.

107
Second Race—Maiden two-year-olds; four furlongs.

Tom Maybin.

112 Little Giant.

105 Courage.

Tom Maybin.

106
Courage.

The baby had died in the mother's arms as the latter trudged ten public has been waiting for a race between these two, and while the distween these two, and while the distween these two, and while the distance.

Six furlance.

Top Boots.

102 Beggar Lady.

Second Race—Maiden two-year-olds; four furlongs.

Tom Maybin.

112 Little Giant.

106
Courage.

The baby had died in the mother's arms as the latter trudged ten public has been waiting for a race between these two, and while the distween these two, and while the distween these two, and while the distance.

Six furlance.

The third event was A20 gold into the Wilkes Dispensary for Children at No. 425 Ninh a "use with her three-year-old daughter.

When Mrs. Mary Kenly, or No. 420 West Twenty-ninth street, waiked into the Wilkes Dispensary for Children at No. 435 Ninh a "use with her three-year-old daughter.

When Mrs. Mary Kenly, or No. 420 West Twenty-ninth street.

Wall the dead!"

The baby had died in the mother's arms as the latter trudged ten because the sold of the sold of the sold of the dead!"

Sh When Mrs. Mary Kelly, of No. 420 West Twenty-ninth street, walked

REPORTS HIS WIFE MISSING.

H. J. Hall, of No. 22 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn, has reported to the police that his wife, Elizabeth Hall, thirty-three, is missing. The woman, who is an invalid, was last seen March 5. She wore a seal collar, a short Brooks & Wells. He was a chum of brown coat with velvet trimmed collar and cuffs, red flannel shirt wast Brooks. When he took the stand Miss and an Alpine hat. She also had a diamond butterfly stick-pin and a wedding ring.

DEAD AT THROTTLE, HIS ENGINE RAN WILD.

NEWBURG, N. Y., March 8 .- Michael Hoey, of Middletown, an engineer on an Ontario and Western coal train, was found dead in the cab last night near Cornwall. His skull had been fractured The train was running wild when the crew, alarmed by its speed, stopped it.

IDENTIFICATION OF BURNS GIRL OUTRAGEOUS CRIES THE JUDGE.

Justice Mayer Declares at Hearing That He Will Discard Bellboy's Statement --- Detective's Strong Testimony Against the Accused.

ence Burns was struck by Justice of Detective Reardon. "I regard the identification of this defendant by the bell boy," said the Justice, "as ridiculous and outrage-aging nature had been given by Reardon. He told of arresting the girl and said she asked what she was charged with. Reardon continued:

"I told her she was arrested for njuring Walter Brooks. "She said, 'Why should I hurt

Walter Brooks when I love him learer than any one in the worldlearer than my father and mother" "I asked how much money Brooks had.

"She said he had $32. I asked how she knew it.

"She replied that she had noticed he had a gold bill, two $5 bills and two $1 bills.

Mr. Backus during the cross-examnation tried to show that the girl gree" and that her father had not been allowed to see her. Justice Mayer showed great interest in this feature of the case and said the cir. cumstances surrounding the girl at the station would have an important her under a charge of murder.

Dr. Albert T. Weston, Coroner's from Walter Brooks when he per-

FLORENCE BURNS IN COURT. (Shetched to-day by an Evening World Artist.)

Physician, caused a rensation by the young defendant, but she made fore his death, so far as he knew it Previous to Reardon's testimony the case was adjourned until nex formed the autopsy. Many of the Harry Cohen, Brooks's chum, told Saturday morning at 10 o'clock dozen policemen. The fever of morbid the stationf" curiosity burned strongly within them "Yes." and they coaxed and cajoled and threatened in their efforts to gain admission.

FATAL BROOKS BULLET IN COURT; TESTIMONY AGAINST BURNS GIRL

the big roundsman at the door. Enter a New "Mystery."

resemblance to Florence Burns. She York? was dressed in a long automobile coat . That was waen you reached year and a hat exactly like the one Artist Justice Mayer came into the court-room opened and the defendant appeared.

She gave no sign of recognition of her friends, but that she knew them was remarked for her face was flushed when the court-room opened and the defendant appeared.

When did you see Miss Burns again?

About 5 octors

To you remember along a relegrant?

Yes

Talked of Going Away.

Talked of Going Away.

Talked of Going Away.

Talked of Going Away.

Night Clerk First Witness.

mony. Mr. Schurman questioned him

"On Feb. 14 did you and Waiter Brooks go anywhere?" "To Newark."
"What time did you get there?"
"About 11 o'clock."

Brooks Met Girl in Station. He told where they went and what business they transacted. "After lunch, what did you do?" "Came back to the station."

"Have you seen her since?" "Yes; in the District-Attorney's Some went so far as to try to bribe office yesterday."
"Do you know her name?"

Shortly after 10 o'clock a young woman "No."

came into court who bore a remarkable "What time did you get to N

wanted to see him once more, as Now

"Could you recognize the comb again."
"No; I den't think I could."

Cohen on the Stand.
"No recognize the comb again."

Backus's Theory

Harry Cohen was then called to the testified.
"Dan't you remember talking to re-porters in the Church street police sta-this definition. I'm not here to pro-tent witnesses or the defendant."

The question was then asked if he had remembered anything he said in the sta-ling house on the subject of the Newark trib.

bid von say that Brooks went to a with a woman that day."

k at her, who whor with Brooks for dark?

Only modded on the party of the control of the cont Remembered "Business." The defendants lawyer then shifted a questions and asked about Mr. ober a mainess in Newara. The wisce's memory on this part of the trip as remarkably clear. There was so

Caused Electrical Display in Cable

Slot.

Electric flames flaring up beneath a north-bound Lexington avenue car at Broadway and Pearl street, caused a oanic among the dozen passengers, drew an excited crowd and delayed traffic for iwenty minutes this afternoon. A piece of horseshoe had fallen through the slot upon the feed wire and the contact caused the electrical dis Death, Andes, Tom Kingsley and quite a number of other sprinters who were in the race.

Before the races took place this afternon the horses in the stable of A. H. & D. H. Morris and R. W. Walden were sold as follows:

D. H. Morris and R. W. Walden were sold as follows:

D. H. Morris and R. W. Walden were sold as follows:

Pike to M. Poster, 11.000; Add to S. D. Martin, 100 Star Cotton, 108 Pay the Piddler, 100 F. C. Pritchard, 1909; Listle Brooks to R. E. Watkins, 1450; Merry Sizer to J. D. Dearing.

Pike T. RACE. through the slot upon the feed wire and the contact caused the electrical display.

One mile.

One mile.

Starters. whis., jocks. St.Haif.Fin. St.Pisce.

Scann. 121. Landerr. 8 23 15 4 6-5 Zack Ford. 104 Divonne

Echadale. 105 Ante Up.

Zack Ford. 104 Divonne

Tragedy, 123. Gilmore... 1 72 34 7 2 Pive pounds apprentice allowance.

TO-NIGHT'S EVENTS. SOCAPA WINS THE FIRST RACE.

MAPLE, FAVORITE, BEATEN IN DESPERATE FINISH.

RACE TRACK, NEW ORLEANS, Tragedy March 8.—Although the weather was Second Ball of the Wang Bowling cloudy and threatening this afternoon Lingo, Dolce Far Niente was second a Circle, Lexington Assembly | It failed to kep the atendance down. track, probably due to the splendid card Club.

every one of them had large fields and a good class of horses, consequently the sport promised to be of the best. Tosport promised to be of the best. Today's stake event was the Oakland Handicap for three-year-olds and upward at a mile and one-eighth. Nitrate. Scarlet Lily, Silver Coin and several other good by ones were to run.

Lily Boots 102 Beggar Lady...

HORSESHOE DID DAMAGE.

HORSESHOE DID DAMAGE.

Caused Electrical Display in Cable

a number of other sprinters who were Lura Lighter and Eufalia. They Brothers tween these two, and while the distance, six furlongs, was a trifle too short for Intrusive, his trainer. Billy Karrick, thought he was able to defeat Death, Andes, Tom Kingsley and quite a number of other sprinters who were

NEW ORLEANS ENTRIES.